

Please leave the do not call list law as it is. Do not dilute it in any way. It is the best protection we've ever had against intrusive and totally unwanted phone calls from telemarketers. I am grateful for being able to not worry about being harrassed by people I don't know selling things I don't need. Thank you!